This makes a total of one hundred students on the second honor roll. Juniors Will Present Hyde Marionette Show

The Hyde Marionettes under the direction of Mrs. Hyde will present "Sing Fu and the Dragon" Wednesday afternoon, October 30, in the high school auditorium.

Mrs. Hyde, the author, secured information for the background of her story from reading material on Chinese folk lore in the Congressional Library, Washington, D. C., and the Cornell University Library, Ithaca, New York.

The story centers around Sing Fu, a young Chinese boy, his honorable mother, Mei, his sister and his faithful donkey, Lu, who talks, balks and walks. Another prominent character is Wily Wicked Wizard, who makes his living by capturing maidens and exchanging them for a large amount of gold and jade.

"We are very fortunate in securing this program and every student should take advantage of this chance," said Mr. Stine.

This program is being sponsored by the junior class and the proceeds will aid in sponsoring the annual junior and senior banquet.

PROMINENT COUNTY NATIVE PASSES ON OCT. 8 AT CHARLESTON

Thomas P. Hill, 67, founder of Tyler County High School and one of Tyler County's most prominent men, died at two o'clock Tuesday afternoon, October 8, at Charleston, following a three month illness of a heart ailment.

Funeral services for the former state senator, educator, attorney, legislaor and business man were held in the local Metholist Church with Joseph Hoffman of Charleston, officiating.

Mr. Hill, a son of Lycurgus and Louise Lantz Hill, was born in this county on August 24, 1873. He graduated from Glenville State Normal School and then completed the law course at West Virginia University. At the age of sixteen he became a teacher in Tyler county and four years later was elected county superintendent of schools.

Later he practiced law in both Middlebourne and Charleston, was principal of the local graded school, served in the house of delegates, was appointed state superintendent of schools, served two terms in the senate and held the position of secretary of the school board for 25 years.

In 1905, Senator Hill introduced the bill in the legislature that resulted in the establishment of Tyler County High School, the first school of its kind in the state. Fourteen years later he saw the erection and completion of the present modern Ellsworth grade school building.

Mr. Hill was buried in the Greenwood cemetary near Sistersville.

Arvin Gorby, Edwin's father, took the boys to Morgantown in his truck.

SENIORS, OTHER GROUPS HAVING PICTURES TAKEN

Mr. Norris Henderson, Sistersville photographer, started taking pictures of seniors and student groups here yesterday.

If the pictures, which Mr. Henderson takes are pleasing to the students, they will buy them. However, if the students do not like their pictures, they are not compelled to take them.

It is hoped that many other students, particularly class officers, will also have their pictures taken.

Bill Gorrell Will Teach a Class In Sewing to Tyler High Boys

"Before thinking of marriage," stated Bill Gorrell, one of those noisy juniors, "every boy should learn to sew. Because, continued Bill, "you never know what kind of a wife you're going to have." (if any).

According to Bill, he is self-educated in the art of sewing and has had thirty-five years of experience. That SHOULD make him pretty good because you've all heard the "Practice Makes Perfect".—That song, however, isn't about sewing, but it's the same principle.

Monday in study hall, up in Mrs. Zinn's room, Bill, after much persuasion, got permission to go to see Miss Kirchner. He returned shortly and went back to his seat. Someone looked back at him and you can't guess what he was doing. Yes, that's right, with about a yard of thread he was sewing (?) a button on his shirt.

"I only sew in case of emergency," said Bill, "when I don't have a safety pin." By the time the button was sewed on again, Bill said, "You know, when I started this thread was white, but now, for some reason, it's almost black." He couldn't figure it out. Is it possible that a little soap and water would remedy that?

After being coaxed by several members of the student body, Bill has agreed to teach a course in sewing to all the boys in Tyler who are interested. It is believed that with six lessons from Bill Gorrell any boy will be capable of taking on the responsibilities of a housewife. You'd better sign up for Bill's class soon, boys, to avoid the rush.

"Considering neatness, my sewing is perfect," stated Bill, "Of course the stitches may be a little bit long and the seams slightly crooked, but never mind that." According to Bill, for the past fifteen years he has made all the clothes for his family out of old sheets. It is for these reasons that we believe that Bill is a fine example of domestic young-manhood and would make a fine husband.

Don't tell Bill that I mentioned it but, remember girls, this is still leap year so now's your chance!

Mr. Wood To Speak At Scout Meeting

Mr. Charles F. Wood, Deputy Regional Scout Executive of Cincinatti, Ohio, will be the principal speaker at the Middlebourne Scout Troop meeting in the Methodist Church, October 24, at 6 o'clock. Mr. Wood's subject will be "America's Youth". Other entertainment will be Scout Movies (in color) of the 1940 Kootoga Area Camporee held at Parkersburg, W. Va. R. D. Dalrymple, Scout Executive of Kootoga Area, will then give the Scout charter to the Middlebourne Troop and badges to the following boys who have passed the Tenderfoot test: Jack Carpenter, Charles Henderson, Robert Jemison, Dean Lucas, Arvil Dodrill, William Owens, Bob Doak, and Joseph Riggs. There have been several new boys coming into the troop, but as yet have not passed their Tenderfoot test. The following are the new boys: Loren McIntyre, Cecil Roberts, Thomas Haught, Donald Jemison, David McCoy, Thomas Houghton, David Buck, and James Appel. These boys are picked by Scoutmaster F. C. Corrie, with the help of the Troop Committee consisting of W. E. Gamble, Emmett Stine, Robert Evans, Gilbert Owens, and Ray Henderson. The patrons of the scouts will serve a covered dish supper to those attending this meeting.

STUDENTS OPINION ASKED

Next week the journalism class will compile a questionnaire to find what the students like and dislike in the RED and BLACK REVIEW and what can be inhluded to improve the paper. These questionnaires will be distributed to the students in home room period.

Journalism Class Selects . . .

SENIOR BOY

"I think the girls in Tyler High are pretty stuck up, but the boys are friendly," said a certain Tyler High School boy.

He was born at Pursley, September 12, 1923 and attended grade school at Pursley, Sistersville, and Ellsworth, where he graduated.

After graduating from Tyler High, which he hopes to do next spring (yes, he's a senior) he says that he's just going to loaf. However his ambition is to be a farmer.

"My favorite singer is Bonnie Baker, and I like Kay Keyser's orchestra better than any other," stated this boy. "I also like to go to the movies very much. Ann Sheridan and Spencer Tracy are my favorite actress and actor."

Although he is rather quiet his sunny disposition makes him very popular.

He uesd to play drum in the band, but he gave that up for football. 4-H work is a favorite hobby of his, and he is very outstanding in this work.

The activities he likes best in Tyler High are football and basketball. When asked what he thinks about football he replied, "All I know is that it is pretty tough."

This boy is five foot nine inches tall and weighs about 146 pounds. He knows lots about football, because he was an outstanding linesman on our team and played in every game.

There's no use telling his name because naturally you've alrealy guessed but just in case you haven't, it's Bob Meredith.

SENIOR GIRL

"I like 'Gone with the Wind' roller skating and Spencer Tracy," emphatically stated a certain Tyler High student.

This sudent was born at New Martinsville, August 17, 1923, and lived there until she moved to New Martinsville Ridge where she completed the grades. She is now a senior at Tyler High.

This girl is the secretary of the National Honor Society. She was made a member of this organization during her junior year.

She is also a member of the "Old Maids Society", is a first honor roll student, and is popular with both students and faculty.

Her favorite subject is geometry and her pet hate is the Conscription Bill. We wonder why?

"I like the girls in Tyler High because they are friendly," stated this senior. But she also thinks that they know too much. Some of them at least.

Concietedness is the main thing she thinks is wrong with the Tyler boys. She also goes on to describe her ideal boy. He has brown hair and grey eyes, plays football and is lots of fun. Is it possible that she is thinking of some certain boy?

"My hobby is scrap books and my favorite author is Edgar Allen Poe," said this girl, "I also enjoy listening to the radio and my favorite program is 'Mr. District Attorney.'" She likes Kay Keyser's orchestra and "just loves" to hear Bing Crosby sing "Blueberry Hill."

By this time you've surely guessed her name. Yes, it's Doris McGinnis.

Guilty or Not Guilty?

By WINNIE HOUGHTON

LIVES OF GREAT MEN . . .

By INEZ FORINASH

"Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime
And departing, leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time."

Last week, Tyler County lost one of its most beloved native sons in the death of Senator Thomas P. Hill, educator, attorney, and legislator. He was a friend of all who knew him and his skill as an educator, his ability as an attorney, and the things he accomplished as a legislator, all combine to make him well-known among the people of Tyler County. He was especially liked because of his kindly humor, his ability as a teacher, and his sympathetic understanding of students difficulties.

He sat upon a railroad track,
A train he did not see,

If a noted educator were to visit our school and spend a half day with our principal, Mr. Stine, what faults and virtues would he be certain to observe?

On his rounds to the various classes with Mr. Stine, Mr. X would be sure to experience the feeling of the real Hatfield and McCoy when the stillness of a class room would be broken by the sharp crack of a bubble gum explosion.

Unless Mr. X had been a past letter man in his college days it would be unsafe for him to venture into the hall or onto the stairs during intermission as the mad scramble to change classes often resembles a touchdown charge on the football field.

The desks and chairs in every room would furnish proof to him of the artistic and wood carving ability of students having had classes there.

If he were lucky enough to avoid the occasional eraser which sometimes sails across the room in the direction of the teacher, he would be certain to be caughht in a shower of paper wads which sometimes fall where least expected.

An examination of our attendance records would reveal shocking conditions. Too little honest effort is being made towards regular daily attendence. Because of this fact two teachers have been lost from our staff within the past two years.

While Mr. X was making mental note of these various faults which he had observed, he could not fail to see the few industrious students who were unaware of his presence. Yes! there are some who really study.

The honor roll in the RED AND BLACK REVIEW which Mr. Stine had given him furnished further evidence that a high percentage of the students were making a real effort to get the most out of their classes.

Mr. X was very much impressed when he learned that many of the students are forced to leave home before daybreak and do not return until after dark. Traveling as much as fifty or sixty miles a day on the school buses which go to every corner of the county.

Mr. X was also very much impressed by the activities of the band, orchestra, chorus, Future Farmers, Quill and Scroll, 4-H, and the National Honor Society.

Guilty or not guilty. Yes, we are free to admit that many of us are guilty of the faults—Mr. X observed on his visit.

Why They Love America

By INTHA FLUHARTY

We who live in the United States do not know enough about other countries to realize the difference between other lands and our own.

In the August issue of the Readers Digest, we read what some of America's "adopted" citizens say about their United States.

One Latvian-born university professor said, "Whatever I have achieved, I owe to the opportunities which America offered and still offers. My indebtedness to the land over which floats the Stars and Stripes can never be repaid, and there is no service I would not render this country of my adoption."

These words of appreciation should make us realize as never before what a privilege it is to be an American.

teacher, and his sympathetic understanding of students difficulties.

Mr. Hill has won the respect and admiration of the people of Tyler County by the remarkable work he accomplished as a legislator. In 1905, he accompliisher the bill in the legislature that resulted in the establishment of the Tyler County High School, the first school of its kind in the state. Fourteen years later, after constant effort, he saw the erection and completion of the present modern Ellsworth grade school building.

Though he is gone, he will not be forgotten. Because of the services which he rendered, he will live on in the memory of his friends.

Classroom Notes

Since Mr. Corrie has become two instead of one, he was met with congratulations and wishes of success by the first year vo-ag class recently. Bill Gorrell told the boys to rise and Marshall McCullough was the spokesman for the group. Each boy was presented with a bar of candy the following Monday.

Miss Tuttle says she is struggling to teach first year Latin between the questions of Leroy Smith, Stanley Smith, and Ralph Williamson.

The Vo-ag boys have constructed an overhead lumber rack and stepladder. The boys working on the rack were Bob Meredith, Cecil Spencer, Keith Freeland, Rexal Seckman, Howard Hadley, and Edwin Gorby. The stepladder was made by Jim McKimmie and Joe Folger.

The manual training classes are ready to begin art metal and leather work as soon as the supplies arrive. There are six classes of manual training this year instead of five.

Mr. Stealey says that for the first time in several years breakfast sets are being made by the manual training boys.

Several boys have started bedroom suites; they are: Howard Hadley, George Meyers, Paul Keller, Edgar Tennant, Delman Helmick, and Ross Mayfield.

* * * *

Ruth Baker, a graduate of the class of '40, was married August 18 to Ernest Leasure at Marietta, Ohio. They will reside in Wetwood. Mrs. Leasure was a member of the Honor Society, Old Maids' Society, and had a part in the senior play last year.

* * * *

Lloyd Seago, a graduate of last year's senior class, was recently employed in the National Cash Register Company at Washington, D. C.

* * * * *

Private Stanley Owens, a graduate of Tyler County High School, writes from Maxwell Field, Montgomery, Alabama, that flying fortresses are landing there every day. The boys there have told him they thought the airplanes were as big as all out doors, but Stanley says that they are much larger.

Miss Ann Theiss, editor of the Red and Black Review, was elected president of the Middlebourne Ideal 4-H club at the annual election of officers which was held in the manual training shop October 12.

Raider Ramblings

By PHIL KIRSCH

Now that the football season is over the Red Raiders will soon start basketball practice.

Let's go back over the football season. Stewart's proteges won one game and lost five. But don't let that make you think that we didn't have a fighting team. Bad breaks lost some of the games for us.

Seniors on this year's squad are Bob Meredith, Robert Stealey, Junior Morris, Glen Moore, and Bill Williamson.

Coming back next year are George Myers, Jim Maini, Dave Lemasters, and John Tallman, who are juniors. Ross Mayfield, Ralph Williamson, Phillip Ferrell, sophomores, and Carl Marsh, freshman. Also returning will be several useful reserves of this year's squad.

* * * *

About this year's cage team. It should be a fine aggregation

We lost only three men from last year's squad. We have such men returning as Howard Crumrine, and Ward Nicholas, last year's forwards. Both are lettermen. Also, there are Bob Meredith, George Myers, Phil Kirsch, Junior Morris, and Lawrence Stead, who were on the varsity squad. The two Williamson boys, Bill and Ralph, will prove to be good assets to our team. Bill was a member of Sistersville's varsity while Ralph was on the reserve team. Sterl Nicholas, Ross Mayfield, and Edgar Newbrough will also be clamoring for positions.

With this material Tyler should having a winning team. Practice will begin next Monday, October 28.

The entire basketball schedule is not complete as yet, but Mr. Stewart released as much as he had. This is complete except for four games.

BILL WINCE SUFFERS HAND INJURIES WHILE HUNTING

Bill Wince, a member of the '39-'40 graduating class of Tyler High, injured his hand while he was squirrel hunting. His gun went off when the dead limb he was leaning against broke and he received the discharge in the palm of his hand.

He was immediately rushed to a doctor and then to the Ohio Valley Hospital at Wheeling. Reports say that he's not likely to lose his hand.

Martins Ferry Game Ends Football Season

TYLER LOSES LAST THREE GAMES ON 1940 GRID SCHEDULE

Tyler wrote "finis" to its 1940 football season last Friday night at Martins Ferry, Ohio, by losing to that team by a score of 40 to 0. This was somewhat of a moral vicory for the Red Raiders because most people thought the score would be much larger. The players on the Martins Ferry team remarked that the Tyler team was the scrappiest that they had played this season. The entire Tyler team played heads up football, so it was no disgrace to lose such a hard fought game.

On October 4, Tyler played host to the Cameron High football team. Cameron finally ecked out a 6 to 2 win, but only after having all of the lucky breaks. Tyler had several bad breaks, but that did not stop them from playing good football.

* * * * *

The night of September 27, the Tyler football team journeyed to Sistersville to play their ancient rivals, the Tigers. The Red Raiders were turned back by the score of 45 to 0.

In this game the Tylerites were without the services of Bill Williamson and early in the second period Jim Main was hurt, and was lost from the team for rest of the game. In the last quarter, Tyler had the ball in the shadows of the Sistersville goal posts but they could not get it into pay dirt.

The Tyler team played hard against Sistersville and their many reserves.

Those who come over from the Ellsworth Public School on Mondays and Fridays are June Burgbacher, Marion Morgan, Arvil Dodrill, Loren McIntyre, Nadene Fluharty, and Launa Lou Fonner, trumpets; and Betty Dawson, alto.
